

Our Congregation

We gather in celebration and seeking. Together we grow, learn, make music, and create community. Members of our congregation represent a true diversity of beliefs and theologies, all of us on a journey of truth seeking together.

Services and religious education on Sunday mornings

Contact Us:

501 South High St
West Chester, PA 19382
(610) 692-5966

www.ucwc.org • office@ucwc.org

Rev. Dan Schatz
minister@ucwc.org

Facebook:
Unitarian Congregation of West Chester

Directions and Parking

We are located at the southeast corner of Lacey St. and South High St. in West Chester. On Saturday and Sunday, parking on borough streets immediately adjacent to the congregation building is free and allowed.

The Unitarian Congregation of West Chester

Seeking.
Serving.
Celebrating.

Our Minister

A lifelong Unitarian Universalist, graduate of Harvard Divinity School, award winning preacher, and Grammy nominated folk musician, Rev. Dan Schatz brings a sense of compassion, community, curiosity, and justice to our ministry. He also takes an active role in community movements for environmental, immigration, justice, and peace issues.

Seeking

Unitarian Universalism emphasizes questioning, spiritual growth, integrity, and community. Members of our congregation represent a true diversity of beliefs and theologies, all of us seeking together. We honor the inherent worth and dignity of all people, justice, equity, and compassion in human relations, a free and responsible search for truth and meaning, and the interdependent web of existence, of which we are a part.

Celebrating

Every gathering – whether on Sundays, at special events, or in life passages – is a reminder of our joy in being together and an invitation to spiritual and personal growth.

Welcoming

Unitarian Universalism holds that great good comes from wide diversity, so whoever you are, whomever you love, whatever your heritage, and from wherever your beliefs spring, we are pleased you are here.

Caring

In our community we support one another:

- Cards and Candles of Sharing
- Professional and lay pastoral care
- Assistance in times of need
- Small Group support

Sunday Services

In our Sunday services we explore a wide range of topics, drawing on writings both ancient and modern, teachings from world religions, music, poetry, and story. Sunday school classes for children take place at the same time.

Learning

In our Sunday religious education classes, children:

- Explore the great religions of the world
- Take action on social justice issues
 - Share ideas and develop their own spirituality
- Make art and music and celebrate together

Adult programs include:

- Ongoing Small Group ministry
 - Adult classes and book discussions
- Men's/Women's Groups and Retreats
- Sunday morning meditation

Loving

Unitarian Universalists “side with love” against injustice. Our projects include:

- Climate Justice
- Black Lives Matter
- Defenders of Democracy
 - Immigration
- Gun Violence Prevention
- LGBTQ equality

Serving

We serve our local community through:

- Monthly “Share the Plate” Sundays
- Children's service projects
- Martin Luther King, Jr. Day of Service
- Safe Harbor, West Chester Food Cupboard, and others

